Synopsis

Captured in battle at a young age Golemus fell under Roman rule, enslaved and finally sold into Gladiator training. Unskilled and clumsy his talents became honed as the outlaw known as Pictor befriended him, teaching him the necessary skills needed to survive in the cruel society. Tempted with gentle love from a slave girl and trying to solve a mysterious message from God, Golemus grows into manhood becoming stronger, more confident, and able to command men. As Rome begins its downfall into corruption from the evil Emperor, a new leader rises as Golemus unwillingly becomes involved.
