Customer Reviews

Not only was this NOT Western transgender horror poetry as the author led me to believe (I envisioned a hockey mask-wearing serial killer in pink chiffon declaiming Byron while dismembering ruggedly handsome men wearing cowboy hats and large belt buckles) the writing was terribly dull and juvenile - very basic sentence structure and use of vocabulary and grammar that I'd expect to find in books written for elementary school students.

Got this through Kindle Unlimited and returned it ten minutes later. Ordinary writing and predictable. If you enjoy good writing this is not for you. Usually these books are semi-tolerable when the writing style is immature but this was not one of those. Very surprised at the five-starâ reviews.

All I can say is that it started with a build up and ended with a huge bang. Some stories are hotter than some but over I would give it a 4.5 ...

Loved these stories, easy to read and goes quickly to the good stuff and its a whole lot of it.

Some of the stories are very well written even for a short story. Others are poorly edited at every level.
