Reign Of Glory I, He Appeareth!

Synopsis

The whore shudders as the kings turn on her. She has lost her adulterous allure as Babylon destabilizes. The beast rises up in blatant betrayal against those who supported it. It's the end game! There is no worldly alliance that will survive the fall of the beast. As the two witnesses die in Jerusalem, Christ prepares his host for a final harvest. 144,000 high priests are sealed from every tribe of Israel, their bodies renewed, their souls saved. The elect assemble as angels blow their trumpets. The cleansing is about to begin. The Devil rushes with evil fervor to widen the jaws of hell that gapes open to accept all those who are about to die. A war made of all the armies of the world, engulf what seems to be God's last stand. But the Father of all has other plans. The armies have come to the plains of Armageddon not knowing they were gathered in one place for complete destruction. It is the end of days and all is in commotion!

Customer Reviews

This isn't the only one of her books that I couldn't put down. Every one of them has been a real page turner. I find her better than almost all of the other LDS authors that I have read. Even the romance between the couples is totally appropriate. I wouldn't have a problem reading this to my children.

It was heartening to begin another series by this author. I will be anxiously awaiting the next installment. She pays attention to details and crafts a spelling binding story.

Oh my goodness! I LOVE this series so much. I'm only 12, but I have gone through this series in a week! Wendie was definitely inspired as she wrote this amazing series. This series has broadened my perspective and has helped me a bunch. Thanks Wendie!!

Well written good coverage of the scriptures.
