Born To Take My Place

Synopsis

About this play: After being freed from prison, Barabas takes upon himself the task of learning who it was that took his place on the felon's cross. His search leads him all the way back to the manger. Candle Star Christmas Productions is a series of simple-to-produce Christmas plays designed for small churches or schools. Each one immerses viewers in a powerful story that clearly presents the gospel message, leaving no question about the true meaning of Christmas. Combined with suggested music (not included), estimated lengths range between forty-five minutes to one hour. Full reproduction rights are granted with paperback editions to purchaser within purchaser's organization.
