This Is Your Destiny (A Curse Keepers Secret Book 3)

Synopsis

Collin Dailey is a trapped man: struggling to make a living as a fisherman, deep in debt to the gangster he does business with and shackled to his destiny as a Curse Keeper. Sworn to guard the sealed portal to hell, Collin yearns to escape the dark duty that binds him. But his dream of outrunning his tormented life may be an impossible one. After all, he can't turn his back on centuries of sacred tradition or ignore his iron-fisted conjurer grandmother and her dire prophecies of a terrifying enemy bent on destroying him. When the fearsome creator god Ahone reaches out with a tempting offer, Collin may not be able to resist. If he breaks the curse that barricades the demon realm, he'll be liberated forever as long as he can survive a confrontation with his deadly counterpart. In the new prequel novella to the Curse Keepers series by New York Times bestselling author Denise Grover Swank, a young man must decide between seizing his own coveted freedom and sealing humankind's doom.

Customer Reviews

*Possible spoilers ahead! Please do not read if you have not read the first three books and two novellas of the The Curse Keepers series!*My review is based on my NetGalley copy, but I purchased it anyway because I like to support the authors i read!This novella answered almost everything I wanted to know about how Collin F. Dailey ended up in the restaurant with Ellie Dare Lancaster to break the curse in The Curse Keepers. After reading this one, I absolutely understand his intentions in all three books released so far. I also understand why he is always so reluctant to share his information with Ellie
